"Although prices may look high now in contrast with past quotations, I believe that they are relatively lower and stocks intrinsically more valuable than they were six years ago. Our railways have improved road beds, on which heavier rails are laid, new rolling stocks and improvements of every kind to provide for the safety of passengers and to insure economy of administration. Earning capacity has increased and the success of the crops has made dividends certain. I know of no false dividends declared for stock-jobbing or other purposes, but I do know of railroads that have been earning 12 per cent and paying a conservative dividend of 6. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 27.-The mysterious death of Anna Hayton, known as rlous death of Anna Hayton, known as "Topsy," who was found dead in her bed in her rooms in the King building here, July 29, deepens almost daily.

When she was found dead it was reported she had committed suicide, and the jury was about ready to return a verdict accordingly when Coroner Knauer insisted on a more thorough examination, which resulted in the arrest of Norton Bryan.

To-day a letter was received by Chief of Police Johnson, which adds another chapter to the story of the blighted life of the young woman. The communication is from a man, who fails to say where he resides, claiming that he is the dead woman's husband. The letter.
